NEW Cultures of the World® (FOURTH EDITION)

EACH BOOK CONTAINS:

- Fact boxes that call out important points of interest, teach readers new languages, and inspire a sense of curiosity about the world and a desire to explore it
- Recipes broken down into achievable steps to allow readers to explore different cultures from their kitchen
- Internet links and lists of related media, including books, music, and movies, to encourage readers to continue their cultural education

CURRICULUM CONNECTIONS:

- Global citizenship is a focal point of the text, including in biographical sidebars that provide readers with inspiring examples of global citizens and activists from each country
- Detailed topographical, economic, and cultural maps allow readers to develop their map-reading skills and their ability to find information in features beyond the main text
- The thoroughly updated main text invites readers to make connections between the past and present and to think critically about both history and current events
