

Reshape Literacy Development With

The Decodables

The Decodables contains books following a systematic, cumulative phonics scope and sequence aligned with the Science of Reading. The words within each text have been carefully selected to ensure that readers can rely on their decoding skills as they encounter new or unfamiliar words. Within the 6 different subseries, readers grow comfortable with a mix of formats: wordless books and fiction and nonfiction with photos or original art illustrations. Readers will also learn various components of books such as chapters, tables of contents, and word lists.

Terrific Transportation — Teacher Notes
Component	Lesson Plan
Teacher Notes	Search for sounds books are meant to build phonemic awareness and to begin teaching initial phonemes to phonics (sounds to letters). Focus letters and their corresponding sounds should be introduced and practiced prior to engaging with this text. Focus letters are: f, j, l, h, s, e, t, v
Vocabulary Development	After reading the text, review that transportation texts to reuse sentence or word cards to build a sentence. Vehicles are used to move people or things. There are many kinds of vehicles. # 2 sentence writing sheet on page 15. Have students cut out the vehicle picture cards. Use the cards like the following categories: vehicles that travel on the ground in the air/water. After students write by the categories for each above, challenge them to sort the vehicles by a different way of their choosing. (Categories may include: vehicles for jobs/vehicles for fun- or vehicles with vehicles without wheels)
Comprehension	• The book Search for Sounds: Transportation Students should practice reading the book for identifying the characters, the setting, and the key details. • Characters are who the story is about. Main characters are who the story is mostly about. • The setting is where the story takes place or happens. Look at each page and identify the setting: P. 2: classroom P. 4: city P. 5: school P. 7: fielding hill P. 8: school • Draw about the kinds of vehicles the kids use throughout the book and what they are used for.
Extension Activity	• Paper • Writing • Drawing Tools Reader Response Journal Entry Use a combination of writing, drawing, labeling and/or writing to share about a vehicle you learned about today that was new to you.

Alphabet Arc

Objective:
The student will name and match letters of the alphabet.

Materials:

- Alphabet Arc
- 12" x 18" construction paper
- Glue Alphabet Arc and glue to 12" x 18" construction paper.
- Set of uppercase letters (e.g., foam or plastic)

Activity:
Students match letters of the alphabet to the Alphabet Arc.
1. Place the Alphabet Arc and the set of letters on a flat surface.
2. The student chooses a letter, names it (e.g., "p"), and places it on the corresponding letter on the Alphabet Arc.
3. Continue until all letters are matched.
4. Self-check

Extensions and Adaptations:

- Match lowercase alphabet letters to the Arc.
- Complete partial Alphabet Arc on page 15.
- Select a letter with eyes closed and try to identify it by its shape. Open your eyes, name the letter, and place it on the corresponding letter on the Alphabet Arc.

The Decodables: Code Breakers (Fiction)

Code Breakers is a series designed to support readers who have mastered basic decoding skills and are moving into the later alphabetic and consolidated phase of reading. Through carefully selected words and high-interest topics, each book allows upper elementary readers the opportunity to practice advanced phonics patterns and morphemes with engaging, age-appropriate text. This set of 10 fiction decodable books follows a class of students presenting their science projects. Readers will follow Valarie through a crystal cave or Richard chasing a storm with his family while they develop their skills in reading words containing long vowel sounds, prefixes, suffixes, and multiple syllables. Includes a note to the caregiver and a word list organized by phonics/affix pattern.

- Develops readers' curiosity about nature and the world around them
- Provides opportunities to attend to the morphophonemic structure of words
- Each title follows a scope and sequence aligned with the Science of Reading that builds in complexity

Search for Sounds • Grade: PreK-K

The Search for Sounds series is designed to help students develop phonemic awareness within the context of story and picture. Students are presented with wordless books and have fun finding items in the pictures that highlight target sounds. Each sound's related letter is also on the page in a clear lowercase font. Cumulative read-aloud texts linked to the pictures are read by the teacher and present social studies and science concepts of interest to young children. Some of the books include recurring characters exploring the topics while others are more typical nonfiction. Interest will be generated as your students work to isolate, identify, and link the sounds to words. The books include lists of suggested words/sounds to search for as well as a note to the caregiver.

Friends and Family Fun • Grade K-1

Students will be excited to explore this series of decodable books for early readers. Recurring characters and familiar contexts such as home or a park are mixed with humor, action, and fun. Readers will cheer as Ben gets a new pet or Zack sees a whale. Each cumulative book is for readers just beginning to decode words. The books begin by introducing the short vowels one at a time within a consonant-vowel-consonant pattern. Later books encourage the readers to incorporate consonant digraphs into their blending. Limited high-frequency words and supportive pictures help the reader successfully navigate the text while they practice essential decoding skills. Each title includes a note to the caregiver and a word list that is organized by Focus words, High-Frequency words and Challenging words.

Fables and Folktales • Grade 2

This decodable series offers illustrated retellings of nine classic fables and folktales. Some will be very familiar; others may be less so. All provide a great opportunity for students to dive into cumulative lessons that feature complex letter combinations along with opportunities for critical thinking. They will learn to recognize many r-controlled vowels, diphthongs, complicated vowel teams, the -le syllable, and a range of prefixes and suffixes while also considering some life lessons. Each book includes a glossary, a note to the caregiver, and a word list that is organized by Focus words, High-Frequency words and Challenging words.
